Clinton has two cotton buyers from different points, viz: Wilmington and Goldsboro. Our farmers can get the highest market price here for their cotton.

Mr. D. L. Herring was in town a few days since and requested us to state that Lisbon township was Democratic. We hope all who think differently will not ask us to publish their views, as it would take up so much space.

Any one having sent in a new article for publication in THE CAUCASIAN, and don't see it in print, may know that it came too late, or else we didn't have space. Communication to insure publication, must reach us Tuesday morning.

Married, yesterday, at 7 o'clock P. M., at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. M. C. Peterson, Mr. Willie L. Lewis, of Pender, and Miss Carrie Peterson, Rev. S. D. Swain, of Wilmington officiating. THE CAUCASIAN extends its congratulations.

Why should every man in Sampson county take THE CAUCASIAN? Because it is the only paper in the State that publishes the news in every section by newspapers; the only paper that publishes the news; the only paper that publishes what you are most interested in. Why should every man in this section of the State take it? Because it not only publishes the news, but keeps you posted on the great reform fight between the classes and the masses. THE CAUCASIAN will make the campaign lively.

Special Notice.

The members of Sampson Light Infantry are ordered to appear for inspection Friday, Sept. 27th, 1892. Every member must be here by 10 o'clock A. M. By order of the Captain commanding.

A Sad Death.

On Sunday morning, a little after 12 o'clock, Leon Giddens, the 19 year old son of Mr. Henry Giddens, sank to his eternal rest. For some time he had been sick with typhoid fever and had been taken with a relapse and lingered but a short while. THE CAUCASIAN extends its warmest sympathy to the bereaved ones.

A Card.

MR. EDITOR: Allow me, through your columns, to thank two of the school boys, Ollie Hobbs and J. D. Koor, who promptly complied with Mrs. Ferrell's request to please be quiet. Mrs. Ferrell was too unwell that day to leave home, as usual, to get out of the noise, so she sent Floy out to ask them to "please be quiet, mama is sick." But the other boys, at least some of them, exercised their lungs still more to annoy Mrs. Ferrell, as some of them were honest enough to acknowledge. Respectfully, T. M. FERRELL.

In handing in this Card Mr. Ferrell remarked that, in justice to humanity, the authorities should not allow such a racket so near a sick lady's door.
